

AJ SCHOLARS-IN-RESIDENCE WEEKEND

At the Intersection of Racism and Antisemitism March 29–31

Prof. Maureen O'Connell

Prof. Philip Cunningham

Prof. Susannah Heschel

Congregation Adath Jeshurun is hosting three scholars who will illuminate the dark corners of the Catholic Church's history with African Americans and Jews. Each of the three will also offer evidence of hope and reconciliation as American Jews face a dispiriting surge in antisemitism.

Prof. Maureen O'Connell, of LaSalle University, is the author of Undoing the Knots: Five Generations of American Catholic Anti-Blackness. Dr. Philip Cunningham is Professor of Theology and director of the Institute for Jewish-Catholic Relations of Saint Joseph's University. And Susannah Heschel is the Eli M. Black Distinguished Professor of Jewish Studies at Dartmouth College where she focuses on the history of Jewish and Protestant thought in the 19th and 20th centuries.
